

Graduate Diversity Visitation Program

Office of Graduate Diversity Initiatives

Explore if Purdue is the right fit for you!

4-day

Expenses-paid program

Engage with renowned faculty and world-class experts

Meet current grad students in your department of interest

Improve your application to showcase your strengths

Purdue University encourages talented students from historically underrepresented racial/ethnic communities to apply.

WHY ATTEND?

The GDVP is a four-day, expenses-paid preview for individuals who are interested in applying for one of Purdue's 160+ master's or doctoral programs.

- ✓ Gain practical advice on preparing a competitive application to graduate school.
- ✓ Learn about fellowships and assistantships that help pay for your studies.
- ✓ Accelerate your skill set with professional development and networking.

TAKE YOUR NEXT GIANT LEAP

GDVP participants gain a significant advantage over their peers during the graduate application process.

2023 SESSION DATES ► Oct. 15-18 and Oct. 22-25

Dates vary by academic college, school, or institute—see the website for full details. Dates include travel time to and from Purdue. On-campus housing, meals, and travel to and from the university are provided.

HOW TO APPLY

The application portal will open February 13, 2023 and closes April 14, 2023. Visit our website for eligibility requirements and application details.

Space is limited —
apply today!

2023 Application Portal Closes
April 14, 2023
>> bit.ly/purdue_GDVP

