

I-POWERED
HIGHER ED
REMIXED

SHELBY
CHRYSLER Jeep DODGE RAM
SINCE 1942

IEFX
ILLINOIS ENGINEERING FIRST-YEAR EXPERIENCE

WEDNESDAY

February 6, 2013

1:30PM-3:00PM
Location: Beckman
Institute Auditorium
(Rm 1025)

405 N. Mathews
Urbana, IL 61801

The IPOWERED
Hip Hop Lecture Series Presents *"Where the rubber meets the road: a town hall conversation with Chrysler Group Design Senior
VP and President of SRT Brand* Ralph Gilles"

on the business of high performance technology and popular culture.

MODERATED BY:
DR. WILL PATTERSON

BLACK GEEK WEEK

blackgeekweek.com

This event is co-sponsored by Illinois Engineering Freshmen Experience (IEFX), Morrill Engineering Program (MEP), National Society of Black Engineers (NSBE), Technology and Management, Business Career Service, Technology Entrepreneur Center (TEC), Office of Inclusion and Intercultural Relation, Bruce D. Nesbitt African American Cultural Center, College of Engineering, College of Business, College of Fine and Applied Arts, Office of Diversity Equity and Access, Office of Public Engagement, and Shelby Motors. The Office of Inclusion and Intercultural Relations (OIIR), part of the Division of Student Affairs, is dedicated to recruiting and retaining underrepresented students, diversity education, civic engagement, and fostering inclusive leadership skills.