LaFrae Sci 1/27-2/7
In-Residence at Unit One/Allen Hall
LaFrae Sci is an internationally sought composer, drummer and educator who teaches at Jazz at Lincoln Center, and is also a founding teaching member of the Willie Mae Rock Camp for Girls in NYC. As a Cultural Ambassador for the U.S. State Department, she has taught master classes and performed in more than 30 countries. This experience led LaFrae to develop and launch the NGO Groove Diplomacy, whose mission is to create youth engagement programs internationally, using musical expression as a vehicle to empower, ignite, heal & create mutual understanding. LaFrae's band, Sonic Black, is an educational collective that creates interactive presentations focusing on the genius of the Black American musical contribution to US and world history.

Groove Diplomacy with LaFrae Sci
Sunday, January 27th, South Rec
