Come grab some cereal and milk and get to know your fellow Allenites! Vegan options available!

Who do YOU want to bring to Allen next year?
Do you know of any fascinating artists, activists, scholars, performers, writers, educators, inventors, journalists, filmmakers, scientists, musicians, or uncategorizable people? Unit One is looking for guests for the Guest-in-Residence program for the 2019-20 academic year. Successful guests will be interesting and engaging, will have enough things to do or talk about for 5 days, and will be enthusiastic about working with undergrads.

Send your suggestions to lhaber@illinois.edu or unitone@illinois.edu. If you don't have a particular person in mind, you can send suggestions for a type of person you'd like to see, based on field of interest, profession, or other factors

Became a Unit One/Allen Hall Orientation Leader!
Orientation Leaders plan Allen Hall Orientation (8/20/19-8/22/19) for new Allen Hall students. You will gain valuable leadership experience, move in early to Allen Hall and get free meals w/out paying for early arrival, and make friends!

COMING SOON:
Monday, March 25 at 7pm- Main Lounge
My Life in Song: A Night with Palestinian Rapper Tamer Nafar
Tamer is a Palestinian rapper, actor, screenwriter, and social activist. He is the premier voice of Palestinian hip-hop and leader of the world's first Palestinian hip-hop group DAM. He co-wrote and starred in the award-winning feature film Junction 48, inspired by his youth and early years as a rapper. Nafar reinvented hip-hop in its purest form: rage without hate, social-political awareness without empty materialism, and large audiences without selling out. Today, millions of fans worldwide follow his rap group, DAM, which has released two albums and multiple music videos. Nafar serves as a role model for young Arabs across the globe. Join us Monday evening for a thoughtful discussion & performance!
