Presented by the UIC Latino Cultural Center, the Native American Support Program, and the Women's Leadership & Resource Center

As part of UIC's Women's History Month Celebration, join us for a conversation with four women from the great Apsáalooke Crow Nation—as they share their Native perspectives—and talk about Apsáalooke ways, people, and their work.

Apsáalooke Women and Warriors exhibition is jointly organized by the Field Museum and the Neubauer Collegium for Culture and Society at the University of Chicago, opening at both sites in March 2020.
